February 9, 2010

My dear Friends in Christ, Friends and Dear One in God,
Today on this Tuesday of February 9, 2010, we had a marvelously blessed Healing Service for so many wonderful people. So many came from so many walks in life, and from afar as well. They came with all their brokenness and needs either for themselves or with friends and relatives. God did love them through our Apostolate love and ministry.

We saw so many tears from men and women, teens and little children. They came with sorrows and secret pains, and they left with tears and assurance that SOMEBODY UP THERE LIKES / LOVES them. Many were personally anointed and multiple healings not only of soul and spirit, but also through Our Blessed Lord and the agency of His Holy Spirit confirmed their Trinity Love by what Jesus called “Doing the Works of the Father” and which the Apostles stated as “Signs and Wonders.”

Our services for this year 2010, God granting us and me life, will be encircling more so into Eucharistic and Healing Conferences Format for the few hours permitted to us in our rental cost of space locale.

These topics can be read on our Web page rdohealingministry.org. They will be used as insights and stepping stones to healings of spirit, soul, and body. Such is called Holistic healing. We all need to look and accept and use for good our broken lives. I like to call our failures and wounds as “Broken Glass.” These are the pieces in our lives which can be picked up and used to be put together as a brand new mosaic – piece by piece – restoration and transformation -- right in into victory.

Today I promised the audience that I would put my simple outline of today’s session on the Web Page for the people to read, have and use for helping themselves more so, or to help another person who might be walking in darkened, confused forest. Somebody out there needs you!

I bless you and I keep you all in the prayer book of my heart each day as I pray before the Blessed Sacrament.

Father Ralph A. DiOrio, M.Ed.; B.F.A.; Ph.D.

SERVICE IN FRIENDSHIP

Welcome to all of you, My Dear Friends in Christ!

Service - This service is encircling our first attempt for this year 2010 to the Healing of people's essential needs, and for a better hopeful tomorrow.

We are including --by personal observation and query from people-- that they have a profound love and respect, and a tremendous need in their love for Holy Mass.

Therefore, as of today, we will be including in our Healing sessions, the Beautiful Gift of Jesus, the Holy Mass. It is His remembrance to us of His Sacrifice of Offertory, Consecration and Communion. He told His Apostles to do what He was doing. “Do this in memory of Me.” (St. Luke 22:19 ; Last Supper.) The Mass is the repetition of the Last Supper, according to the Lord's command.

We all want, and we all need to be healed in many ways from many sufferings pertaining to human life and relationships, but especially to receive God's Blueprint for a Blessing.

Our past always haunts us. We all search how to find ourselves and to free ourselves of painful wounds. In so seeking, we come to appreciate especially the grace of retreats, or sessions of peace and hope restored, and with the added graceful support of coming together with other people from all walks of life.

In such moments, we all try to reassemble broken realities as we may have experienced those moments when the world seemed and still seems to becoming apart. We are living in dark times; and many of us think if the world is so full of war, bitterness, and poverty, crime, hunger etc. , . Where is God? But we who have faith know as Habakkuk in the Old Testament, God Is God! He is in Heaven, He is in Our Hearts, He has not lost control of “earthly ball” called earth, this, His world.

He cares about you. He has a plan for you. But we can, and we, both you and I, need to learn victory and not defeat through these evil times of mankind. With God there are no lost cases.

In reference to my obligation to Evangelism by permission of the Church Authorities, I have prayed and reflected on Peoples' needs in a confusing atmosphere of these living times. Like many a person I have and am exposed to a "Broken World of Dreams and Sufferings."

TODAYS SERVICE

Eucharistic Service and Healing Conferences 2010.

Today' service begins in this Conference Year Presentation with the first basic element for personal and world peace and it search for happiness. It lies in the fields of Philosophical Ethics ( the use of our actions according to wholesome reason to the ultimate goal of happiness in a Supreme Being ), and in the order of God speaking to us in His revelation ( that is, Holy Theology, specifically in our actions through the eyes of Morality ).

It deals first with Friendship.

JMJ

St. John 15:15

St. John15:12-17

"I call You My Friends, says the Lord."

In this world of people, there is probably no sentiment in the human soul which has been more highly praised and more beautifully described than true friendship.

If life gives only one true friend,
One who is faithful to the end,
Then life has given more than gold,

It has given the greatest joy a heart can hold.

If just one friend is ours to share,
To understand, believe, and care,
Then life is sweet, complete, and true,
Just because of one friend like you.

I pray therefore, that today will be a blessed day for each of you, You who the friends of the Lord.

Jesus is your best in all ways – He is God, He is Lord, He is Savior, He is Your Friend !

HEALING SESSION AFTER MASS FROM the Spoken Word into HEALING

DEMONSTRATION:

A- What am I holding in my hand? A match and a candle
If I light it and blow it out it dies. It has not been used for its creative purpose.

B- ANOTHER SENSITIVE QUESTION:
Question how would you people rate 1-10 your relationships to friends, or to mutual partner..... to business, to marriage?

B- Life is filled with many “burnouts.” The fire of love dims out.

One of these basic burnouts is Friendship.

Question : “ Is Friendship True or False?”

Friendship is the foundation for true lasting love.

C- Did God have Friends?

THE GIFT of HOLY FRIENDSHIP leading to Love

The Psychology of Love consists:

- 1- To see, feel, observe something or someone
- 2- To admire
- 3- to like
- 4- to request maybe a closeness of further insights
- 5- to seek oneness called exclusivity
- 6- Love
- 7- Vows and Commitments

If life gives only one true friend,
One who is faithful to the end,
Then life has given more than gold,

It has given the greatest joy a heart can hold.

If just one friend is ours to share,
To understand, believe, and care,
Then life is sweet, complete, and true,
Just because of one friend like you.

Friendship is probably no sentiment in the human soul

which has been more highly praised and more beneficially described by writer, poet, artist, (and in our day, film makers ) of all ages, be they pagan or Christian, than that of friendship. There is in this world, among natural goods and blessings, which one esteems and values, more than the possession of a real friend.

A- St. Ambrose says, “It is the solace of this life to have one to whom one can open ones heart and tell your secrets; to win to yourself a faithful man or lady who will rejoice with you in sunshine, and weep with you in showers.”

Scripture:

We read in the Bible that “a faithful friend is a strong defense; and if that is found in him or her, such a one has found a treasure (Eccles. 6:14 )

TRUE FRIENDSHIP:

So contrary to false friendship (explain this -- next service.) It is excellent and must be sought for. “It is excellent,” continues our St. Ambrose, “because it comes from God; because it leads to God; because its very bond is God; and because it shall last forever.”

True friendship is mutual exchange of affection by which two persons give another assistance, counsel and consolation.

Friendship says Aristotle is a very intense and sweet sentiment which contributes to making our life happy and virtuous.

7

Plato says, that “friendship is established only between souls. It is exactly in this that virtue before Heaven lies.”

It requires that those who are friends do good to one another and that they give themselves up for one another’s sake: for friendship feeds on devotedness and self denial. But there is no devotedness, no self-denial except in virtue. And this is Godly!

N.B. Caution:

1-False friendships serve only for selfishness to one party which it is absolutely not. This will end in destruction

2-Choice of a Friend (next service)

In this service, let us go to the best friend of all -- Jesus.

JESUS:

- 1-Morally helpful
- 2- Genuine friendship
- 3- Genuine basis for friendship
- 4- Mutual love is Mutual Sacrifice

After Friendship is established, then one goes on to the Love and Exclusivity of Marriage (next service) Love has begun!*
