“And Mary, pondered all these things in her heart.”

St.Luke 2:51

“Tota Pulcra
Est, sed Formosa”

She was dark but beautiful!
Oh, Mary, most Fair, pray for us.

May the Holy Mother, whose heart was pierced by the seven swords of sorrow, open her heart to receive all the tears of a wearied and wandering humanity. Love is not love unless one can give it away, and Mother Mary gave Her Love – Her Son to all of us. May she bless you all, on the feast which we in the Church celebrate on September 8, this 2010.

Remembering you and wishing you all the best God can bestow.

Father Ralph +
